

Dianne Cowman

This legislation is far too early to be considered. Our infrastructure is not even close to being ready to support a massive surge of EV cars and trucks plus said cars and trucks are still technologically not ready to replace petroleum fueled cars and trucks.

Think this through before voting on it. The adverse consequences will destroy our economy.