

Frederick Chavre

Laws that dictate 2035 electric cars only belong in places like Russia or North Korea. The over production of CO2 is best addressed in a free market based on real not hyped science. Stop being communist and more importantly promote real discussions using truth not your agenda, Mr. Insley.