

Mike SWANSON

Please DO NOT try to force expensive major changes onto us the taxpayer, let smart people move us in this new direction which has a better chance of making a true change - versus making a law and forcing the change. I cannot tell you how many things I've seen that start out with good intentions, but then unintended concenquences make a mess of things!! Please slow down and get off of the latest knee jerk, feel good action.