

Eric Rindal

Ecology show move to ban if able, all advertising of ICE based vehicles as was done with cigarettes. If Unable to direct impose such a ban, should endeavor to request the legislature do so in the next session. Removing advertising by manufactures and dealers would leave the only option to advertise clean energy vehicles and would serve to rapidly change public perception that this change is still far in the future.