

Dennis Goellner

Electric vehicle mandate and gas engine ban is a bad idea,let people chose what kind of vehicle that they want to buy,government should not be forcing people to buy cars that they don't want and cannot afford.the government is a employee of we the people.our constitution saids that we are a republic of freedom,and that the government works for we the people.let the people chose