

richard rylander

I object to both actions. We are NOT California. The attempt to ban the sales of new fossil fuel vehicles by 2035 is not only stupid but will devastate the economy. The economics don't work. The damage to the environment is far worse than fossil fuels. On so many levels your proposed changes must be stopped by any means possible.