

Forrest Didier

This ruling is the cart before the horse. The electric grid is not ready to handle the demand, technology is not fully developed yet and this is yet another intrusion by the government on the freedoms of Americans and will be exceedingly costly to hard working taxpayers. I STRONGLY oppose this measure.