

Mildred Ferris

I oppose the Ruling of making mandatory mandate for electric cars. #1 we don't the infrastructure to support all the use of electricity #2 you say you want to save the environment but killing the AMAZON to get the nickel to make the batteries. #3 the cost of these vehicles are expensive and your regular family would not be able to afford a vehicle to drive. Stop trying to be California and lets work out another reasonable solution then just "ELECTRIC VEHICLES"