

Carolyn Sabin

Personally I feel that this mandate is ridiculous. If I wanted to live like Californians live I would move there. I drive a gas hybrid already but forcing people to have one of these cars is unconstitutional. Washington state is taking away more and more of our right to choose. I am disgusted with this plan.