

Stephen Davenport

Chapter 173-423WAC. This is very costly and foolish action. No one has yet found a way to safely dispose of all of the batteries. I am retired and the cost of these vehicles is out of my reach and I DON'T WANT ONE. I do not care what California does. We do currently produce enough electricity to power all these new vehicles.