

Carl Self

I believe that we the people need to have the opportunity to vote on such changes to ensure that the people agree with what our representatives are promoting and not have these and other such regulations and laws forced upon us. We the people are responsible not we the governed.