

L Bretz

The proposed requirements regarding zev is totally impractical, the costs involved are as under stated as light rail is. It borders on racism in that people of color are least likely to be able to afford the cost of them. Do not implement this policy.