

Ted Irvin

It has already been proven that California cannot meet their own law. They can't even keep the power on in hot weather. Now Washington is going to do the same thing. STUPID! The cost of this folly is going to be felt by all residents. Wake up and stop this right now.