

Brenda Wilkinson

Against...against.. against. Ridiculous idea. I do not ever want to be forced into buying an electric car. I want my gas vehicle. Replacing electric batteries when needed will put enormous financial burden on families and where would used batteries go to be disposed of in a safe manner. And then there is the burden on our electric grid. No no no!