

Robert Cleveland

These new rules dont make sense. There is more pollution in the mining process to obtain raw materials to build a battery than driving gas cars. This makes us more dependent on China for our materials.

Just think if you had a ev car in Florida how do you charge it. More important to get power to charge these vehicles you have to rely on energy that is above solar and wind. Vote no on this legislature.