

mike smith

This proposal is detrimental (if not deadly) to all citizens of Washington State but more so for retirees who need affordable private transportation to doctors, hospitals and other care givers. Forcing Washington citizens to by EV's is essentially adding another onerous tax to an already overburdened public. Furthermore, despite the fact that the WA electrical generation capacity exceeds CA power capacity, the increase in loads for EV charging will exceed the delivery infrastructure and thereby cause significant damage to our well being.