

w williams

By committing WA to be fossil-fuel-free for our automobiles, ACC II will help make EVs more available and economical to all. It will save state drivers and taxpayers billions of dollars on fuel and maintenance, while lessening the air, water, and climate pollution that impacts the health of everyone in the state. ACC II will help accelerate a quick, smooth and efficient transition to clean electric cars.