

Jo Ann Potter

Rulemaking - Clean Vehicles and General regulations for Air Pollution Sources

This will exacerbate the problem. Electric vehicles will increase the load on the electric grid.

Electric power needs fossil fuels to generate electricity. This is making the problem worse, not better and is another example of departments of government making decisions which they do not have the authority to do. Should be a vote of the people. Do not move forward with these proposals.