

Glenn Borg

Forcing people to buy cars that they can't afford, with no infrastructure to support it is complete insanity. Inslee and the people in charge of this state have lost all sight of helping this state or the people in it. We don't need to follow California, they have lost all touch of reality. I do not support this bill.