

Deborah Colombi

This proposal is not realistic. It will be extremely punitive for businesses and families alike. We need to protect the environment but not at the complete destruction of families and the businesses that employ them.