

Natalee PAnderson

Not everyone can afford an electric vehicle and they cause environmental damage with mining and battery waste. Our infrastructure is not set up to handle charging all those cars. Doing so will add millions to an already overtaxed state.