

Ed Tropp

Please do NOT copy California's harmful rules and legislation. Gas vehicles are still a necessity, and pushing electric vehicles prematurely simply out-sources pollution to different areas. These rules will unfairly and unnecessarily burden consumers and business, and will NOT accomplish meaningful improvements to the environment.