

Douglas Trussell

By states doing this they are giving control of our country and reducing jobs in the country. This is absurd for this people who have to commute for two hours in the Seattle traffic jams this will cause an issue. Furthermore this will cause blackouts across the state, then how will people charro their vehicles. Instead of focusing on ev why doesn't the state focus on getting homeless off the streets, keeping criminals behind bars.