

Debbie Birkland

Mandating electric vehicles is not what is needed by the people of Washington. The infrastructure can not handle the requirements of such a mandate. The cost of EV vehicles is more than most Washingtonians can afford. Mandates are not the best way to achieve goals!