

Barbara Musselman

Why do you blindly follow the worst run state in the nation? Think about transportation as a whole. You have no plan, only marching orders. Where are the charging stations? How will you transport goods, produce? How long will the batteries last when someone is stuck in the snow on the pass? Don't turn this country into Venezuela!