

David Robinson

I am retired and can not afford a ev all I have is a gas powered car can only go about 300 miles what if I have a doctor appointment it's about 150 miles for me to see my doctor do I need a spare battery just to make sure I can make it home what about the jobs this bill will kill can't go anywhere long distance any more no more vacations cause I can't fly anywhere or my car can't pull my trailer that far anymore there are so many things wrong with these two bills that are not going to be fixed by 2035 who will pay for all this we are so far in debt now what are you thinking this will not work it needs more time for tech to catch up with what you want