

david erwiin

I am opposed to the WA proposed EV standards. These mandates will cost the average person and do nothing to change the "Climate Change Myth". We have way too many of these types of government intrusions on our lives in the once great state of Washington.