

Carol Smith

"Government by the people"! This should be a choice to the people not mandated by an individual with an agenda. Still questions about production and disposal of these batteries along with concerns about miles available and electric demands. No forced mandate please!