

Neal Padur

Please do not force this provision on hard working people and families that cannot afford to buy an electric vehicle.

This absolutely makes no sense given the fact that our electric grid will not support this huge demand on the system.

The general public does not support this change. Thank you.