

THOMAS FALK

This change is not what the State of Washington needs or wants. It will be a disaster for the common people of our state with the price of EV's. Why are we so bent on clean air when the biggest offenders China, India and Russia could care less. This should be put to vote not enacted by non elected people.