

Nancy Henley

I am against any legislation that prohibits personal freedom. Requiring electric cars only will devastate our economy. Electric cars are much more expensive than gas cars and most Washingtonians cannot afford to buy an electric car. I have also seen many reports of electric cars having the possibility of exploding in flames and there is no way to put the fire out. It just has to burn out. Please cancel this rule change.