

Cynthia Galante

We drive an EV by choice. This should not be a mandate by the government! EV's are not as environmentally friendly as you would think. The lithium batteries are toxic. We do not have the grid that can accommodate such a mandate. Where do you think electricity comes from???