

Natalie McBride

First of all my family cannot afford a $66,000.00 ev.

Second of all, the power grid cannot sustain the usage, you know it, we all know it.

Thirdly the harvesting of cobalt is full of child labor and terrible for the world environment.

This is a power grab by the elites of the one world government and nothing more. I do not believe the lie, neither should you.