

Marjie Reinig

I look forward to the day when electric vehicles are more affordable and plentiful, and improved infrastructure will enable them to power up easily and reliably. ACC11 would ensure this day becomes a reality sooner than later. We need to decrease the fossil fuel emissions in the most timely manner possible to slow global warming and its detrimental effects.