

Ward Erickson

Mandating electric vehicles is bad for our state major upgrades need to be made to the power grid and infrastructure to prevent overloading our systems. Additionally, taking away the right to choose what vehicle is right for one's family irresponsible and negligent