

Nathan Yuhl

We are approaching 80 years old and purchased our last car several years ago. We will need access to reasonably priced fuel for a number of more years. Also, reasonably priced heating oil. Going "green" will do nothing for the environment. Please let our free economy be free.