

Shirley Owens

I am requesting you rescind any requirements for EV vehicles and allow people to buy what they desire. Was the Legislature in on making these rules? The vast majority of significant policies such as these, need to go before the Legislature, who are our elected Representatives. You can strongly encourage families to buy EV, but many people can't afford these.