

Betty Jo Cloninger

I can't even imagine how you would think that this is a viable American concept. What happened to people having choices? You have destroyed and moved so many people out of this state. Stop, enough tyranny let people live an honest life without mandates.