

Mark Bricker

we need to convert to cleaner energy at some time. but this is too soon. might work in the urban areas but not in rural. also just read an article in my local paper about our power grid. it will not be able to handle this deadline. please use common sense on this.