

Michele Almeida

We drive old, gas vehicles because we cannot afford new vehicles - of any kind- let alone ultra expensive electric vehicles with expensive repair costs. Truly think about what you are proposing here. Try putting yourselves in the shoes of the majority of your constituents. Our old, gas vehicles are maintained and last well past 200k miles. I would say that using what we have and not creating more waste is earth friendly.