

Michael Marshel

Please do not support mandates for EV vehicles. Why? Simple if you are a democrat leader and support lower and middle-income people, then you instinctively know that is a regressive tax. There are currently no affordable EV options for people who cannot afford a car over $10k. Although the intentions are good for cleaner emissions, it would create an additional financial strain on working-class people - the people you represent.