

gregory rust

This is a horrible piece of legislation/rulemaking! Let the market decide when EVs will be sold! This will do little to reduce climate change, and the additional electricity required could result in MORE pollution (since it seems likely that we will remove 4 dams on the snake river, and this may require us to go back to coal or natural gas burning to make up the deficit.