

Ruth Koffler

I do not approve of demanding that all Washingtonians have to purchase electric vehicles. This is a total waste of tax payers money as the vehicles can not go as far as a gas powered car before it has to stop and recharge, which recharging takes hours and wastes time. Plus it is cost prohibitive to replace the battery compared to repairing a gas powered vehicle. Plus the grid cannot accommodate that much more power usage.