

Linda Qualley

There is no possibility that I would ever be able to afford an electric car. I am retired and enjoying my retirement without having to worry about getting an electric and all that goes with it. I hope there will be no laws made in Washington that will put many of us in the position of being unable to get around because we can't afford a car. How horribly unfair that would be to many of us.