

Desiree Avey

Banning gas cars will only further put low and middle income families into despair. Families are already having a hard time making ends meet with rent, groceries and gas going up.