

berhane sena

This is a threat to liberty and creativity in the automotive technology and science. Your huge toxic car batteries are not safe and creates filthy wealth to the the privileged few who know how to bribe politicians and speculate the market. Moreover tapping excessive electric power will exert the demand for more dams. More dams= more killing of fish. Stop this nonsense command automobile market.