

earl garver

these purposed rules are unrealistic money wise & time wise. electric is not capable of the demand & can't be there in the time frame purposed. taxes will have to increase greatly & there are alot of people that are not getting by now.