

Darla Donovan

What incentives will be offered to those who do not make enough money (eg, those on Social Security Etc.) to take advantage of the tax breaks or who cannot afford a new or used EV? We will be stuck with our gas operated vehicles while seeking very limited and extremely expensive fuel options. Once again the government in its attempts to do the 'right thing' end up making the lives of lower and moderate income citizens even more challenging.