

Barry Teats

The state does not have the infrastructure to accommodate an all EV's law. Can't drive any distance for holidays or vacations. What about old battery disposal? How can most people afford a good EV? Leave the power source for vehicles up to the individual driver.