

Anonymous Anonymous

Why are hybrid vehicles not incentivized or included? They seem like the more reasonable option, smaller battery and minerals, half the emissions of an ICE, no need for charging stations. Ecology should consider agency request legislation to include hybrid vehicle incentives and targets. EV heavy-duty trucks are not feasible and should be dropped immediately from consideration. Don't embarrass yourselves by blindly copying California's laws, everyone is watching.